

OK, we now have our dealer system though we won't be able to activate it for about a week, when our showroom account is approved.

That means we should be able to start selling within a few days after that.

So, we are ready to start scheduling anyone who can come to Tucson for hands-on training! Over the telephone assistance for the first setup will follow within a week or two after that.

We have updated our web site to show the basic info about the HughesNet services. So, please check it out.

And, we have removed the StarBand forums and added forums for HughesNet Ka-band:
